

Symphony No. 1, Op. 25

movement 2 and 3

Sergey Prokofiev

*arranged by Paul De Bra for accordion sextet or orchestra
(1, 2a, 2b, 3, 4, bass, timpani)*

Sergei Prokofiev (1891-1953) was a Russian composer, pianist and conductor, known for dissonant and virtuosic works. From his Symphony no. 1 the second and third movement are the most well-known, and perhaps this is because the first and fourth movements are very difficult. This arrangement can be played by a sextet (with or without timpani) but is really more suited for a larger accordion orchestra to allow for diviso, not only because it becomes easier but also and mostly to allow for emphasizing notes that may otherwise drown in a chord. The two movements are provided separately so as to make it easier to perform them separately if desired.
