Elegische Melodien, opus 34, nr. 2.

Edvard Grieg

*arranged by Paul De Bra for accordion quintet
(1, 2, 3, 4, bass)*

Våren (Last Spring / Letzter Frühling), nr. 2 of the (2) Elegische Melodien opus 34 by Edward Grieg, is a melodious slow composition for strings. In contradiction to other composition depicting spring (e.g. Vivaldi or Piazzolla) this one is all about peace and quiet. Nr. 1 is Hjertesår (Wounded Heart / Herzwunden) and not included here.

In the arrangement for accordion quintet registration should make the first voice sound just a bit different from the other voices. Also, there is a small part (first 8 measures of part B) that violins should play close to the comb (“ponticello”) which creates a nasal timbre. Adding the 4’ reeds to the 8’ is intended to mimic that effect.
